JOURNAL 1.

OHIO STATE LOAN.—$6,400,000. Office of the Ohio State Board of Control of the Sinking Fund, Columbus, Ohio, Oct. 18, 1860.

The State of Ohio desires to borrow the sum of SIX MILLIONS FOUR HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS to be applied exclusively to the payment of that portion of the State Debt due on the first day of January, in the first day of December next, and to that end, the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund of the State, under authority of an Act of the General Assembly, will receive sealed proposals for the loan of such sum, to be paid in two years, in the City of Columbus, on the 12th day of the TWENTIETH DAY of NOVEMBER, NEXT, for the purchase of SIX MILLIONS AND FOUR HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS.

And the same sum, or so much thereof, as may be necessary, to be applied to the payment of the principal and interest of the State Debt due on the 1ST DAY OF DECEMBER, 1860.

Each proposal must distinctly for which of these classes of certificates it is made, the amount which is desired, and the date when the hundred dollars of such class proposed to be taken, and must be accompanied by a certified check on, or certificate of deposit of one of the banks of New-York City, payable to the order of the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund.

Each proposal must distinctly state the name of the bank, and the date when the hundred dollars of such class proposed to be taken, and must be accompanied by a certified check on, or certificate of deposit of one of the banks of New-York City, payable to the order of the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund.
